2023 Business Report

I. Operating Performance in 2023

(I). Implementation Results of the 2023 Business Plan

(II). Looking back at the past year, in the midst of the ongoing Russo-Ukrainian war and the lingering pandemic, the global demand for internet terminal products has weakened due to the tightening of currency resulting from the continuous rise in global inflation. With the easing of material shortages, global enterprises are facing serious pressure regarding increased inventories. Despite strict inventory control and effective inventory level control, our company experienced a 6.7% decline in revenue in 2023 due to market weakness. By region, sales in the Asia-Pacific region have significantly declined due to the severe destocking and dumping of mainland Chinese products; by product, it was mainly benefited from increased sales of switch products. Despite the negative effect of the New Taiwan Dollar's depreciation against the US Dollar in 2023, we have successfully maintained a satisfactory gross profit margin by optimizing our product portfolio. Looking ahead to 2024, the Company will continue to enhance its core competitiveness and strengthen its management by launching new quality products, carrying out in-depth development of cloud platform services, and optimizing its product mix to increase gross profit. In addition, while increasing revenue, we will manage operating expenses in a prudent manner to improve the profitability of our main business and continue to pay attention to market changes in response to the impact of changes in the general environment.

(I). Budget Implementation

The Company did not disclose its financial forecast for 2024.

(II). Profitability Analysis

With a review of the financial performance in 2023, the global consolidated revenue was NT$15.941 billion, a decrease of 6.7% compared with 2022; the gross profit margin was 24.1%, a decrease of 1.2% from 25.3% in 2022; the net operating profit was NT$126 million, which was a decrease of NT$427 million from the net operating profit of NT$553 million in 2022; the net income after tax was NT$568 million; the earnings per share after tax was NT$0.95.

(III). Research and Development Status

Commercial Product Line

- (1) Switch Products: To meet the increasing demand for Wi-Fi 6E/7 wireless products, we have introduced the DXS-3130 series of 10G PoE management switches and the DMS-1250 series of 2.5G PoE smart switches. These products, when combined with Wi-Fi 6E/7 commercial wireless products, provide the optimal solution for enterprise and campus networks. As part of the product generation update, we have introduced the DQS-3610 series, which is a new line of 100G/25G L3 core Switch. This series offers a comprehensive range of switch products suitable for both large enterprises and small businesses. Customers can centrally manage all smart and management switches through the D-View8 management platform using the standard SNMP.
- (2) Enterprise Access Point and VPN Gateway Products: Introduce the brand-new Wi-Fi 6 indoor and outdoor AX3000 commercial wireless products, DAP-X3060 and X3060OU. Moreover, responding to the growing popularity of tri-band applications, the Wi-Fi 6E indoor AX5400 product will also be launched subsequently. Users can choose stand-alone operations or utilize the Nuclias Connect management platform, offering a user-friendly centralized management solution for commercial wireless networks. It is anticipated that following the introduction of Wi-Fi 6E, there will be a gradual rollout of Wi-Fi 7 related products, offering a comprehensive range of commercial wireless solutions to the market.

Home Product Line

- (1) Home Wireless Routers: We are currently in the development phase of Wi-Fi 7 320MHz products. In addition to inheriting the intelligent features of AQUILA PRO AI, we are integrating a 2.5Gbps Ethernet interface and a tri-band wireless solution (2.4GHz, 5GHz, 6GHz) for home networks. This aims to deliver a low-latency and higher bandwidth network experience. The Wi-Fi 6 product series is designed for the new type of field networks in smart homes and smart buildings. It integrates the planning and development of the Matter product series and utilizes the Thread specification to create more stable and flexible mesh networks for smart home devices.
- (2) IP Camera and IoT: To fulfill the needs of smart homes and remote care, we have developed AI capabilities and integrated services for Cloud to Cloud service integration and created a new central monitoring system that enables customers to remotely and instantly monitor the status of their devices and household members. Furthermore, the original cloud service can be integrated with specific services to broaden the scope and reach a wider audience of cloud service users. The application of IoT enables the integration of the Matter protocol, enabling products to seamlessly collaborate with third-party Matter Controllers. This enhances product convenience and compatibility.

> Telecom Product Line

- (1) Broadband Network Products: We continue to develop XGPON product lines, mainly XGPON modems. The Company will promote Two-box home network solutions integrated with Wi-Fi Mesh products. In addition to the demand of telecom providers, we have also started to plan and develop related products with third-party partners.
- (2) Mobile Broadband Products: We offer a variety of devices for LTE/5G mobile broadband communication. In addition to our existing LTE 4G Cat4/Cat6 AX1500 CPE products, we have also introduced ODU supporting 5G-NR 3GPP R16 specifications and a 5G CPE series that integrates Wi-Fi 6 AX3000/AX6000 and wireless Mesh functionality. It is expected that the Company is able to meet the needs of telecom providers at different levels.
- (3) M2M Industry Application: The Company launches the industrial applications integrated with the Internet devices. The main feature of the product is that it can be used in various vertical applications. The product series mainly supports LTE/5G networks, as well as Ethernet and Wi-Fi. The Company promotes the Internet access of devices in various industries, the collection and monitoring of data and status, and the integration of D-ECS platform functions to provide the comprehensive wireless connectivity solution for industrial applications. Successful cases can now be found globally, with applications in various sectors such as public transportation, charging stations, electronic billboards in shopping malls, and city bike rentals.

II. Business Plan for 2024

(I). 2024 Business objectives

The Company adheres to the following operating guidelines to achieve the established strategic targets.

- Keep abreast of the trends in the networking market through global bases, formulate innovative product development plans, enhance the partnership with key technology strategic partners, launch high-quality leading products, and continue to develop value-added AI-powered smart functions.
- Stick with discipline in research and development (R&D) and production, continue to improve processes, optimize the global supply chains, and capitalize on the Group's synergy.
- 3. Global teamwork: Closely communicate the Company's strategies and policies, build consensus across different cultures and regions, and share local successful experiences.
- 4. Sustainable operation: Committed to environmental protection, fulfill social responsibilities, and continuously improve corporate governance.

(II). Sales Forecast and Basis

According to the latest data released by IBISWorld in September 2023, the total monthly Internet traffic in 2023 was approximately 374 EB (1 EB = 103 PB = 106 TB = 109 GB), an increase of approximately 13% compared to 331 EB per month in 2022. The slight decrease in demand for home internet traffic is attributed to the slowdown in growth due to the easing of the pandemic, global reopening, return to office, and revenge travel. However, 4K/8K video streaming, Internet browsing, various online games, gaming platforms, generative AI and social networks, has expected to continue growing. The growth in traffic is complemented by the demand for network infrastructure and equipment, which includes the switches of telecom suppliers and cloud centers, transmission equipment to enterprise-level switches, wireless base stations to home wireless routers, broadband and mobile routers, and other networking equipment.

1. Commercial Product Line

- (1) Switch Products: As expectations for a temporary pause in interest rate hikes and subsequent rate cuts by the ECB and the Fed gradually diminish, it is anticipated that corporate capital expenditure will rebound this year. Furthermore, the ongoing trend of generative AI is expected to persist, necessitating not only significant computing power but also a substantial increase in network traffic demand. Consequently, the demand for switches in the corporate, telecommunications, and retail markets is expected to remain stable and gradually increase. This year, in addition to the continued promotion of enterprise cloud solutions, the introduction of multiple new series of 10G/25G/100G switches will also contribute to revenue growth, and together with the existing main 1Gbps class switches, the overall market share will likely further increase.
- (2) Wireless Access Point and VPN Gateway Products: In the new year, in addition to launching several models of enterprise-grade Wi-Fi 6 access points at the beginning of the year, we have also planned for the release of the next-generation enterprise-grade Wi-Fi 7 access points, which are expected to be available in the second half of the year. With Wi-Fi 6 VPN Gateway and intelligent management platform, we aim to assist SMEs in building a smoother, more convenient, stable, and secure remote office environment.

2. Home Product Line

(1) Home Wireless Routers: The widespread use of mobile devices, along with the availability of various internet services, has transformed the wireless router at home into the central hub for household internet usage. The Company not only continuously launches routers with the latest specifications of Wi-Fi 6E and Wi-Fi 7, but we have also started integrating Matter technology based on AI, coupled with a series of IoT devices, to build a smart home solution that provides services in a hope to increase sustainable revenue and stabilize profitability.

(2) IP Camera and IoT: Among all AloT devices, the digital camera serves as the eyes of the smart home network, being the only device capable of receiving images. On the other hand, the various IoT detectors are like the sensory nerves of the human body, responsible for receiving different types of information. Once transmitted through the network to the router for analysis, appropriate actions are taken. According to market research predictions, the annual compound growth rate of demand for IPCAM from 2022 to 2027 was approximately 20.68%. The overall market size reaches 147.7 billion US dollars. This year, the Company will continue to work closely with its ODM partners, to strengthen Al integration in products and expand the application of affordable cloud added-value services based on high-level network security standards. The Company is expecting an increase in brand awareness in the competition and proportion of service fee income by a series of Matter-based smart networking devices in the future.

3. Telecom Product Line

- (1) Broadband Network Products: Although the demand for copper wire is gradually being replaced by optical fiber, there is still some demand in developing countries. The Company continues to invest some resources to serve the existing customers in order to secure the market share and customers. There is insufficient bandwidth in the previous fiber optic network of GPON (2.5Gbps). The major network companies are making every effort to gain a foothold in the 10G PON market. With the maturity of the technology, the market share of XGS-PON (10Gbps for both uploading and downloading) is expected to increase rapidly in recent years in response to the emergence of KOLs and the huge traffic demand of Tik Tok and generative Al for uploading videos. Following the ongoing telecom project in 2023, XGS-PON products will be expanded in 2024 together with a series of Mesh Router to offer telecommunications companies more options, either in the form of one-box or two-boxes, and expedite the customization process with our experienced research and development team, this year will commence the Company's Transition from Copper to Fiber.
- (2) Mobile Broadband Products: With the gradual increase of 5G coverage, 5G FWA (Fixed Wireless Access) has become a broadband access solution in low population density areas due to advantages such as shorter deployment time and lower labor and equipment costs, which can increase broadband network coverage while significantly reducing operators' fiber deployment costs. In addition, 5G that integrated with AI and cloud computing technologies can develop various applications and services, such as IoV, smart monitoring, remote industrial control, etc. It is also one of the most important infrastructures in the AIoT. The Company has successively launched Sub-6 5G indoor router and 5G mobile router, and has gained market share. This year, we will not only collaborate with a series of IoT devices to create AIoT industry application service solutions but also enhance our well-established private 5G solutions and actively promote them to compete for telecommunications tenders in different countries.

(III). Important Production and Sales Policies

The market sentiment is continuing to decline, with the consumer goods market being particularly affected by a severe imbalance between supply and demand. The Company has conducted a thorough review and adjustment of orders in the first quarter and has instructed overseas subsidiaries to efficiently manage inventory control. The objective is to mitigate cash flow risks, and it currently seems that the policies are being implemented as necessary. Currently, there are no indications of a temporary slowdown in the US-China trade war. Trade barriers and reciprocal tariffs will become standard. Non-CHN production will be available as an alternative for customer orders. However, the Company remains committed to investing in Taiwan for research, production, and manufacturing, offering a wide range of solutions developed by the Taiwan network team with a global market focus. This will undoubtedly provide us with a competitive advantage. The general principles of the Company's sales strategy in 2024 are still "selection" and "concentration", that is, we will adopt the optimized product mix and work with the optimal team of ODM partners and suppliers and adjust our sales strategies flexibly in different regions through our three business divisions in America, Europe, and APAC & Others regions and overseas subsidiaries on the front line, to increase our market shares in the home, commercial, and industrial markets, while strengthening our long-term partnership with mobile network operators.

III. Future Development Strategy

(I). Short-term Development Strategy

- 1. Cooperate with high-quality ODMs to establish a controllable supply chain system with close relationships.
- 2. Reshape D-Link's brand image and enhance brand value from three aspects: specifications and prices, functional performance, and corporate identity.
- 3. In addition, the Company has been able to provide the specifications and functions required by each industry and expand its market share to reduce the competition of products with general specifications.

(II). Mid- and Long-term Development Strategy

- 1. Achieve the extreme simplification of the supply and management of networking products with cloud computing as the main pillar.
- 2. We develop and create coordinated product services for our customers by leveraging the synergies of resources within our group.
- 3. Strengthening cooperation with Tier 2 and Tier 3 telecom operators to secure long-term contracts with localized services.

IV. The Impact of the External Competitive Environment, Regulatory Environment, and Macroeconomic Conditions

Competition in the networking market is fierce. Not only are new brands entering the market one after another, but also ODMs are often directly involved in telecom bidding projects. However, the Chinese manufacturers who are competing for market share at low prices continue to emerge, squeezing the gross profit of the networking companies. The Company will continue to optimize its supply chain, reform its global organization, and carry out stringent inventory management to reduce costs and expenses, as well as AI and cloud platforms form the core, presenting a variety of solutions to surpass individual product approaches so as to increase sustainable revenue and stabilize profitability. In addition, in response to rising security awareness in various countries, the Company has been well-prepared for "local manufacturing". The Company has established ESG Committee to create a sustainable business environment from three aspects, namely environment, society, and corporate governance, in addition to striving to make profits in the core business. Regarding the overall business environment, the pandemic gradually eases and lockdowns are lifted, inflation appears to be curbed. However, geopolitical tensions remain high. In the upcoming year, the prices of raw materials, energy, and the supply chain will undoubtedly be significantly impacted. It remains to be seen whether we will experience a repetition of the cycle from two years ago, when the epidemic caused shortages, hoarding, material scarcity, excessive ordering, and a substantial increase in inventory levels. This led to a period required for destocking and resulted in an economy downturn. Additionally, central banks in Europe and the United States have been signaling the possibility of interest rate cuts, raising concerns about potential speculative inflows causing currency fluctuations. This situation also requires close observation. Lastly, this year is an election year. According to statistics, approximately 2 billion people worldwide are expected to participate in voting across various elections, representing around 60% of GWP. Key regions for the company's operations include the United States, Taiwan, India, and the 27 member states of the European Union. Therefore, in addition to planning, developing and promoting various solutions as usual, the main focus of this year is to work closely with our subsidiaries, pay attention to local situations, understand local needs and dynamically adjusting inventories, keep an eye on central bank policies of each country, and seek expert advice to implement exchange rate risk management.

Last but not least, we would like to express our sincere appreciation to all shareholders for your support and trust in the Company. Our management team and all employees will strive to create the maximum values for all shareholders.

Independent Auditors' Report

To the Board of Directors of D-LINK CORPORATION:

Opinion

We have audited the consolidated financial statements of D-LINK CORPORATION and its subsidiaries which comprise the consolidated balance sheets as of December 31, 2023 and 2022, the consolidated statements of comprehensive income, changes in equity and cash flows for the years then ended December 31, 2023 and 2022, and notes to the consolidated financial statements, including a summary of material accounting policies.

In our opinion, based on our audits and the report of another auditor (please refer to Other Matter paragraph), the accompanying consolidated financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the consolidated financial position of D-LINK CORPORATION and its subsidiaries as at December 31, 2023 and 2022, and its consolidated financial performance and its consolidated cash flows for the years ended December 31, 2023 and 2022 in accordance with the Regulations Governing the Preparation of Financial Reports by Securities Issuers and with the International Financial Reporting Standards (" IFRSs"), Interpretations developed by the International Financial Reporting Interpretations Committee ("SIC") or the former Standing Interpretations Committee ("SIC") endorsed and issued into effect by the Financial Supervisory Commission of the Republic of China.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audits in accordance with the Regulations Governing Financial Statement Audit and Attestation Engagements of Certified Public Accountants and Standards on Auditing of the Republic of China. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditors' Responsibilities for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements section of our report. We are independent of the D-LINK CORPORATION and its subsidiaries in accordance with The Norm of Professional Ethics for Certified Public Account of Republic of China, and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirement. Based on our audits and the report of another auditor, we believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis of our opinion.

Other Matters

We did not audit the financial statements of D-Link International Pte. Ltd. and D-Link Middle East FZE, subsidiaries of D-Link Corporation as of and for the year ended December 31, 2023 and the financial statements of D-Link International Pte. Ltd. and D-Link Brazil LTDA, subsidiaries of D-Link Corporation as of and for the year ended December 31, 2022. Those statements were audited by other auditors, whose reports have been furnished to us, and our opinion, insofar as it relates to the amounts included for above subsidiaries, is based solely on the reports of other auditors. The financial statements of above subsidiaries reflects the total assets constituting 12% and 5% of the consolidated total revenues for the years ended December 31, 2023 and 2022, respectively.

KPK/G, a Tatwan partnership and a member firm of the KPMG globol organization of independent member firms affiliated with KPMG International LimSed, a private Ecolish company Smiller by cuarantee

D-LINK CORPORATION has prepared its parent-company-only financial statements as of and for the years ended December 31, 2023 and 2022, on which we have issued an unmodified opinion with other matters paragraph.

Key Audit Matters

Key audit matters are those matters that, in our professional judgment, were of most significance in our audit of the consolidated financial statements of the current period. These matters were addressed in the context of our audit of the consolidated financial statements as a whole, and in forming our opinion thereon, and we do not provide a separate opinion on these matters.

1. Valuation of inventories

Please refer to Note 4(i) for accounting policy of inventory, Note 5(b) for accounting estimations and assumption uncertainty of inventory valuation, and Note 6(e) for the write-down of inventories to net realizable value.

Key Audit Matter Explanation:

Most inventories of D-LINK CORPORATION and its subsidiaries are internet solution products, which are measured at the lower of cost or net realizable value. As a result of competitive and rapidly changing environment where D-LINK CORPORATION and its subsidiaries is located in, its internet solution products may become out-of-date and can no longer meet the market needs, resulting in a fluctuation in the market needs and the price of these products. The estimation of the net realizable value involves a subjective judgment of the Consolidated Company's management, which results in a risk that inventory cost may exceed its net realizable value.

How the matter was addressed in our audit:

For valuation of inventories, we observed the physical count of inventories at year end to inspect the condition of inventories; reviewed the inventory aging reports; review the net realizable value basis adopted by the Consolidated Company's management to verify whether the allowance for obsolete inventory estimated by the Company is in accordance with the inventory provision policy. We also assessed the appropriateness of the Consolidated Company's relevant disclosure of inventories.

2. Revenue recognition

Please refer to Note 4(q) for accounting policy of revenue recognition and Note 6(x) for sales details of the consolidated financial statements.

Key Audit Matter Explanation:

D-LINK CORPORATION and its subsidiaries sells internet related products and services, and aims to offer high-quality internet solution proposals to global consumers and enterprises. Revenue is the key performance indicator to evaluate the Consolidated Company's performance. Consequently, we have determined revenue recognition to be a key audit matter.

How the matter was addressed in our audit:

We tested the effectiveness of the Consolidated Company's controls on revenue recognition; evaluated whether the terms of sale were consistent with the accounting standards and checked relevant sales documents; analyzed and compared the changes in sales to major customers to assess the reasonableness of revenue recognition.

Responsibilities of Management and Those Charged with Governance for the Consolidated Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the consolidated financial statements in accordance with Regulations Governing the Preparation of Financial Reports by Securities Issuers and with the IFRSs, IASs, IFRIC, SIC endorsed and issued into effect by the Financial Supervisory Commission of the Republic of China, and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of consolidated financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the consolidated financial statements, management is responsible for assessing D-LINK CORPORATION and its subsidiaries' ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless management either intends to liquidate D-LINK CORPORATION and its subsidiaries or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

Those charged with governance (including the Audit Committee) are responsible for overseeing D-LINK CORPORATION and its subsidiaries' financial reporting process.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with the Standards on Auditing of the Republic of China will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these consolidated financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with the Standards on Auditing of the Republic of China, we exercise professional judgment and professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of D-LINK CORPORATION and its subsidiaries' internal control.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management.
- 4. Conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on D-LINK CORPORATION and its subsidiaries' ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditors' report to the related disclosures in the consolidated financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause D-LINK CORPORATION and its subsidiaries to cease to continue as a going concern.

- 5. Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the consolidated financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the consolidated financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.
- 6. Obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence regarding the financial information of the entities or business activities within the Consolidated Company to express an opinion on the consolidated financial statements. We are responsible for the direction, supervision and performance of the group audit.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide those charged with governance with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, related safeguards.

From the matters communicated with those charged with governance, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the consolidated financial statements of the current period and are therefore the key audit matters. We describe these matters in our auditors' report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

The engagement partners on the audit resulting in this independent auditors' report are Hsieh, Chiu-Hua and Chang, Stu-Ying.

Responsibilities of Management and Those Charged with Governance for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with the Regulations Governing the Preparation of Financial Reports by Securities Issuers and IFRSs, IASs, interpretation as well as related guidance endorsed by the Financial Supervisory Commission of the Republic of China, and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, management is responsible for assessing the Company's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless management either intends to liquidate the Company or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

Those charged with governance (including the Audit Committee) are responsible for overseeing the Company's financial reporting process.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with the Standards on Auditing of the Republic of China will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with the Standards on Auditing of the Republic of China, we exercise professional judgment and professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company' internal control.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management.
- 4. Conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditors' report to the related disclosures in the financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Company to cease to continue as a going concern.
- 5. Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.

6. Obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence regarding the financial information of the investment in other entities accounted for using the equity method to express an opinion on the financial statements. We are responsible for the direction, supervision and performance of the audit.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide those charged with governance with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, related safeguards.

From the matters communicated with those charged with governance, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the financial statements of the current period and are therefore the key audit matters. We describe these matters in our auditors' report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

The engagement partners on the audit resulting in this independent auditors' report are Hsieh, Chiu-Hua and Chang, Stu-Ying.

Article 14 The election of directors or independent directors at a shareholders meeting shall be held in accordance with the applicable election and appointment rules adopted by the Company, and the voting results shall be announced on-site immediately, including the names of those elected as directors and independent directors and the numbers of votes with which they were elected, and the names of directors and independent directors not elected and number of votes they received.
